

Dear Parents,

Invitation letter of “Multicultural Harmony Fun Day”

Since its launch in 2016, the "C-for-Chinese@JC" project has received tremendous support from various sectors of the community, allowing the program to be successfully implemented and achieve great success.

In 2022, the project enters phase 2, committed to promoting culturally responsive teaching in schools, creating a joyful and meaningful learning environment for students, providing an inclusive cultural interactive platform, and continuously enhancing non-Chinese speaking students' Chinese proficiency improving the social skills of Chinese speaking students.

“Multicultural Harmony Fun Day” carnival will be held on 17th June, 2023 (Saturday). It is allowing families to learn about the characteristics of different cultures through various workshops, interactive booths, cultural displays, and more. Rich prizes will be provided for parents and students to exchange after the games.

We cordially invite you to attend the carnival to share the joy of the event. The details of the event are as follows:
